

Georgia and South Carolina | Fly-Drive Holiday

Holiday Duration: 9 Nights

Overview

Georgia to South Carolina

Atlanta / Savannah / Charleston

Three of the classic cities in the South are the backbone of this lovely fly-drive holiday meandering through Civil War history, glorious antebellum homes and majestic rivers all the while eating delicious southern food.

The holiday can be driven in either direction, but we suggest starting in Atlanta so that you can add on some beach time in the Golden Isles or Hilton Head at the end if you wish.

This itinerary is flexible and can be tailor-made to suit you; if you want to add extra days in one area, extend the holiday or maybe change the direction of travel. Talk to one of our experts about how to make this holiday the perfect one for you.

Here's a day-by-day guide to your itinerary. Feel free to ask us to add other days or ideas and excursions by contacting us directly, so we can give you the best price.

Days 1-3

Atlanta

Your holiday begins in Atlanta, Georgia.

You will have three nights in the city which will give you time to explore the world of Coca Cola or of Gone with the Wind, indulge in some serious retail therapy in Buckhead Village, visit the Olympic Centennial Park or stroll through the beautiful Botanical gardens.

3 nights Atlanta

Days 4-6

Atlanta to Savannah

Collect your hire car from downtown. We suggest a fairly early start so that you have time to stop along the Antebellum Trail at Milledgeville and Madison to see the Governor's Mansion and some of the other beautiful plantation homes or Civil War sites. Arrive in Savannah in time for a glass of something refreshing to see the sun set over the river. Savannah is one of the busiest ports in the US and it is fascinating to watch all the river traffic.

Savannah is noted for its 22 beautiful squares and there is no way to introduce you to them than a walking tour around the city. Work up an appetite for lunch at one of Savannah's sidewalk cafes or if you are really hungry, Mrs Wilkes Dining Room is the place to go for a tasting of all Savannah's noted dishes in an extraordinary atmosphere. Be warned, Mrs Wilkes is very popular and you will have to queue. Speaking of food: enjoy sea food with a southern twist at one of Savannah's fine restaurants such as Elizabeth on 37th or the Old Pink House. Tybee Island, on the outskirts of the city has splendid beaches if you would like a day away from sightseeing.

TIP: Ask Frontier America to reserve you a table for dinner.

3 nights Savannah

Days 7-9

Savannah to Charleston & South Carolina

Time to bid a sad goodbye to Savannah and head north to Charleston, South Carolina stopping along the way to see the Civil War sites and historic buildings at Beaufort. (pronounced Bufort). It is a charming town with a couple of excellent inns if you would like to spend the night.

This would be a good time if you wish to extend your holiday to take a detour to either the Golden Isles of Georgia or Hilton Head Island.

You will have two full days in Charleston and we suggest you keep your car today so that you can go out to visit the plantation homes along the river. There are lots to choose from but the four we recommend, all very close to Charleston, are Boone Hall Plantation & Garden, Drayton Hall, Middleton Place and Magnolia Plantation & Gardens.

We recommend and include one of the horse-drawn carriage tours which will fill you in on the history and take you down some of the back streets of this extraordinary city. You can also visit Fort Sumter National Monument which is where the first shots were fired to start the Civil War. This evening, enjoy a cruise along the Charleston River, listen to some music and enjoy some of Charleston's legendary shrimp and grits.

3 nights Charleston

Day 10

Charleston & South Carolina

Just time for some last minute shopping in the market before heading to the airport, unless we can persuade you to stay a little longer?
