Day 1

Denver

Depart for Denver, the mile high city. You can spend a couple of nights here exploring the many museums and the unique art district or if you just want an overnight, you can stay at the airport.

1 night Denver

Days 2-5

Denver to Brush Creek Ranch

A four-hour drive will take you through the foothills of the Rocky Mountains to The Lodge & Spa at Brush Creek Ranch for a four night stay to imbibe the essence of the American west on this luxury ranch. You will be able to spend your days riding, fishing, soaking up the atmosphere, enjoying the spa, walking and of course enjoying the wonderful food.

4 nights at Brush Creek Ranch

Days 6-9

Brush Creek Ranch to Amangani

A longish drive (5 hours) to another luxurious resort; this time the Amangani near Jackson Hole in Wyoming. The first Aman resort in North America, the Amangani overlooks acres of meadows and grazing land but it is the surrounding mountains that will take your breath away. Your four days here will be filled with exploring the Teton Valley on foot or by mountain bike, playing a round or two of golf, watching for wildlife, fishing, climbing or perhaps being swept into the skies in a hot air balloon. Whatever you do by day, your evenings will be spent in huge comfort whether relaxing in your suite or enjoying the farm to table cuisine in the Grill Room.

4 nights Amangani

Days 10-12Amangani to Yellowstone National Park

Yellowstone! On most people's bucket list, if you have not been to Yellowstone yet, it is a must. From the vapours of Old Faithful to the streams, canyons and lakes, the wildlife, it is bound to thrill even the most seasoned traveller. Accommodation in the park is not of the quality of the newer resorts but staying at the Old Faithful Inn will give you a strong sense of the traditions of the area. Your alternative accommodation would be to invoke the spirit of the Old West glamping in upscale safari-inspired tents just 10 minutes from the West Yellowstone park entrance. You will need two full days to explore the park.

3 nights YellowstoneDay 13*Yellowstone National Park

Time to go. There are limited connections from West Yellowstone airport to London. Bozeman, which is just under a two-hour drive, has more choice. Please discuss with your consultant as to the best options open to you.
