

Two Cities by Rail | Boston to Chicago

Holiday Duration: 7 Nights

Overview

Two Cities by Rail

Get ready to embark on an unforgettable journey that fuses the rich heritage of Boston with the vibrant energy of Chicago. This dynamic doubleheader lets you experience the best of both worlds: the quaint cobblestone streets of Beantown alongside the soaring skyscrapers of the Windy City.

Boston will immerse you in the American Revolution's rich tapestry. Walk the Freedom Trail, a red-brick path leading past historical landmarks like the Faneuil Hall marketplace and the venerated Bunker Hill Monument. Don't forget to cheer on the home team at a Fenway Park baseball game, a quintessential Boston experience.

Chicago, the "City of Big Shoulders," offers a completely different perspective. Immerse yourself in breath taking architecture, from the neoclassical grandeur of the Art Institute of Chicago to the iconic bean-shaped sculpture in Millennium Park. Savour the city's deep-dish pizza and indulge in world-class jazz music in legendary clubs.

Both fares include all meals and a First Class attendant on board. The route will take you through Worcester and Springfield in Massachusetts to Albany, along the Mohawk River past the Erie Canal, through Buffalo along the south shore of Lake Erie, one of the prettiest in the US, to Cleveland and on to South Bend, the south shore of Lake Michigan and into Chicago.
